

JOB ADVERTS – East African Lives

Following a successful bid to the National Lottery Grants for Heritage, Crescent Radio would like to recruit 3 part time members of staff for it's new 15 month, East African Lives project. Posts to start 1st February 2019.

Post 1 – East African Lives Producer

20 hrs per week £10/hr

Experience of audio and video editing essential. Production of final oral history interview ready for archiving and uploading online, will be an essential part of this role.

Post 2 – East African Lives Co-ordinator – Heritage Lead

10hrs per week £10/hr

Excellent knowledge and understanding of East African culture, history and languages is essential. Recruitment and management of contributors & volunteers will be an important part of this role.

Post 3 – East African Lives Co-ordinator – Exhibitions and Resources Lead

10hrs per week £10/hr

Excellent project and marketing skills required. Ensuring targets are met and reporting is accurate, will be an essential part of this role.

See attached Job Descriptions and person specifications.

To apply, send your short CV and a letter of application to : faheem@crescentradio.net

Deadline for applications: 5pm Wed 22nd January 2020.

This post is subject to funding.

